

EXPECTRA supports the mining and minerals sector through training on MQA Accredited OHS Representative Skills Programme.

Expectra is a supplier of risk and safety management services and products to the mining, minerals and high risk industries. We are committed to support the mining industry in particular towards the training of OHS representatives according to the Mining Qualifications Authorities' standards, based on the tripartite industry agreement.

The Chamber of Mines have committed itself, with Government and Unions to train at least 40 000 OHS Representatives by 2014. This is required by the Mine Health and Safety Tripartite Leadership Summit Agreement signed on 05 September 2008.

Expectra's holistic approach, as an MQA Accredited Service Provider enables facilitation of the complete process, from registration to assistance in obtaining the MQA Competency Certificate on behalf of our clients. Our subject matter expert facilitators are supported by MQA accredited assessors and moderators, providing complete peace of mind and quality assurance to our clients.

Clients are fully supported with all administrative procedures by Expectra according to unique client and site specific requirements.
