

Expectra has partnered with LAT rechnologies. They are an international rechnologies. They are an international developed an unique approach (process, tools, and systems) that will enable organizations to develope monitor, track and implement favor deflope monitor, track and implement favor between the process, pro-actively (before entering the workplace, as well as in workplace management), and enable intervention before employees enter the workplace performed to the processes and systems. In other works, a total pro-active, real them works, a total pro-active, real them.

